

Prayers of Intercession

God of Unity and Diversity

At this time of year when we think especially of those close to us, we pray for those who are a long way from the country of their birth and from those they love.

Joining with the UN on International Migrants Day, we remember those denied dignity and safety and those who are exploited and abused. We pray for fairer, clearer and more inclusive migration systems. Come Lord Jesus. Be with those who make journeys and those who make policies.

Bring hope, peace, courage and comfort to all.

We pray for our divided world, that the music of tolerance would ring out more loudly than the bullets of hatred.

We pray especially for the victims of the Bondi Beach shooting: for the injured, the grieving and for the whole community impacted so terribly.

We pray for all those who are victims of violence and especially young people who have lost their lives to gun and knife crimes.

We pray for juveniles convicted of violent crimes, for mentors to guide them and for role models to inspire them.

Come Lord Jesus. Be with those who are traumatised and those who are afraid.

Bring hope, peace, courage and comfort to all.

We pray for our NHS: For all those struggling to care for the volume of patients entrusted to them; for those hospitalised with flu and life-threatening illnesses; and for all those afraid that their treatment will be impacted or their appointments cancelled by the Resident Doctors' strike.

We pray for those who will be working over Christmas, and those on call.

Come Lord Jesus. Be with those who are overwhelmed by responsibilities and those who are vulnerable.

Bring hope, peace, courage and comfort to all.

We pray for King Charles and all those whose journey through illness is very public and for those who face their journey alone.

We pray for those who know this will be their last Christmas; those who fear that it might be; and those who are celebrating their first Christmas with someone they love.

Come Lord Jesus. Be with those who are joyful and those who are sad.

Bring hope, peace, courage and comfort to all.

We pray for those expecting a child this Christmas time; for those whose children have died; for those who have suffered miscarriages; and for those for whom parenthood hasn't been possible.

We pray for our churches as they both sing out the joy of Christmas and sit quietly with those whose hearts are heavy and whose lives are broken.

Come Lord Jesus. Be with those who are celebrating and those who are mourning.

Bring hope, peace, courage and comfort to all.

And on this shortest day of the year we pray for one another and for the light of Christ to shine brightly in our hearts. We pray for our families, our friends, and our communities. May these last days before Christmas bring opportunities to heal broken relationships; reflect on our journey of faith amidst the tyranny of undone tasks; and give and receive God's precious gift of love.

In Jesus' name,

Amen

A message from our minister - Dear friends, As we gather at Christmas, we remember that God's greatest gift was not wrapped in paper or placed beneath a tree but born in a manger. In Jesus, we are gifted with light in our darkness, peace in our struggles, joy in our waiting, and love that never ends.

This year, the Methodist Church invites us to reflect not only on the gifts we receive, but on how we ourselves can be a gift to others. To be "gifted" is not just to hold blessings, but to become a blessing. Whether through a listening ear, a shared meal, or standing alongside someone in need, each of us can embody Christ's love in practical, everyday ways.

As we celebrate, let us remember those who feel alone or weary. The Christchild reminds us that every person is precious, every life is gifted, and every act of kindness can shine God's love.

As we journey into the new year, may we continue to ask: How can my life be a gift to others? In that question lies the heart of discipleship, and the joy of Christmas lived out all year round.

A blessed Christmas to you all, and peace for the year ahead.
With every blessing, Rev'd Agnes Sam

Community Outreach Pastor update – This week we had our last Lego club of the year, where we made Christmas ornaments and gave each of the children a Christmas gift. Lego nativity scenes were also built. We look forward to Lego club starting back on the 12th of January.

I attended a thank you tea at Holt Farm Infants School for those that help out in the school this week. It was lovely to hear from parents that the children enjoy my assemblies, one child even said that God / Jesus was now his second favourite person - behind his mum! Thanks, Mike Webb

Collect - God our redeemer, you chose the Virgin Mary, to be the mother of our Lord and Saviour. Fill us with your grace that in all things we may embrace your holy will and with her rejoice in your salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Christmas Day - Almighty God, you have given us your only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him and as at this time to be born of a pure virgin. Grant that we, who have been born again and made your children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by your Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
